ENGLISH MINISTRY SERVICE

9th September 2012

Speaker: Pastor Mark Maney

Theme: The Story: In the beginning...and if God created the universe, then who created God?

Sermon Passage: Genesis 1:1

Welcome to all visitors to this morning's service. You are warmly invited to stay for morning tea and lunch after the service.

A SPECIAL WELCOME!!!

A special welcome this morning to Charlotte's parents, Harry and Vera Dikau from Canada. They are returning back to India to continue their mission work (they had previously spent 17 years as missionaries in India, which is also where Charlotte grew up). But before they go to India they are stopping by to catch up with Charlotte, Mark, Roseanna and Alaric. We wish them God's richest blessings in their renewed ministry in India.

LUNCH FOR ALL TODAY!

Everyone is most welcome to stay for lunch after the service. This will be a regular event on the 2nd Sunday of each month and will provide a meaningful time for us as a congregation to get to know everyone!!! We encourage you to take the opportunity to approach and chat with people you do not know or do not know very well – and get to know them well.

Students free – others a dollar coin donation, please.

PRAYERS

Before they call, I will answer; while they are still speaking, I will hear.
Isaiah 65:24

- An ordained minister for the Cantonese Ministry
- Pastor Mark and his ministry at ACPC
- Thanks for the members of the Parish Council – for their willing service over the past two years
- Nomination of Parish Council members for the new church year –direction and conviction for those approached to serve in this area.
- AGM on 14th October –
- Parish Council meeting this week - for wisdom and guidance over the decisions to be made.
- Continued healing for Uncle Alex Wong Toi and Harry Fong and others who are unwell - and support for their families.

ACPC ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 2012

Sunday, 14th October 2012 immediately after the service. Nominations for Parish Council members should be given to Parish Clerk, Marty Bing, by the end of today's service, please.

HOW JESUS TAUGHT US TO PRAY (1)

Therefore, pray...Our Father in heaven... Matthew 6:9

Here's how Jesus taught us to pray:

- 1) 'Our Father in heaven.' When you say, 'Father' you are acknowledging that you're 'family,' that you have a special relationship with God which entitles you to go to Him at any time, confident you're loved, welcomed, and assured of His favour.
- 2) 'Hallowed be Your name' (v. 9 NKJV). This thought should always be uppermost in your mind: 'Whatever I do today, Lord, whether in thought, word or deed, let it honour You.' People should be able to look at your life and want to become acquainted with the One you serve.
- 3) 'Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven' (v. 10 NKJV). Each time you choose to say no to yourself and yes to God's will, you demonstrate to a watching world what it means to live as a citizen of His kingdom. Note the words, 'as it is in heaven.'

Is anyone in heaven fearful or doubting? Stubborn or disobedient? Critical or negative? When the enemy brings something to your door that's contrary to God's will, you have the authority to rise up and say, 'If it's not done and approved in heaven it has no place in my life here on earth.'

When it comes to disobedience, refuse to accept the package and sign the receipt. The one thing Satan hopes you never discover is that you have the God-given authority to restrict his movements in your life.
