WELCOME TO REV AND MRS TANG

We are very happy to have Rev and Mrs Chu Hang Tang at our service this morning. Rev and Mrs Tang are in Auckland for a week. They have a busy schedule during which most of us will have an opportunity to dine, meet and/or chat with them.

PRAYERS FOR OTHERS

"Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and grace to help us in our time of need."

Hebrews 4:15

- This morning's service, Rev Tang, preacher, and all who are taking part in the service.
- A positive and blessed week for Rev and Mrs Tang in Auckland
- God's protection over Jireh and Raphael Tang while their parents are in New Zealand
- Pastor Mark and family and his ministry at ACPC
- Continued healing and increasing strength for Elder Alex Wong Toi and Harry Fong and all others who are unwell - and support for their families
- Tertiary and secondary school students – that they are able to study effectively and approach their exams calmly and successfully.
- Smooth progress in the construction of the building at the back of the church

ST DAVID'S FOODBANK

Thank you for your contribution to the St David's Foodbank. Your generosity is much appreciated by the Foodbank. The new co-ordinator Damien, will be in charge of the Foodbank until March 2013.

YOU ARE THE CHURCH (2)

Their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work. Nehemiah 3:5

The story's told of a football team that was losing badly. Pointing to the captain, their coach on the sidelines kept shouting, 'Give the ball to Calhoun! Give the ball to Calhoun!' Fed up and frustrated, the captain finally shouted back, 'Coach, Calhoun doesn't want the ball!'

Yesterday we talked about those who would rather be a spectator than a player. Today let's talk about those who are on the team but don't want to put their heart into it.

While rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem, Nehemiah wrote, 'The next section was repaired by the men of Tekoa, but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work.'

These guys suffered from two common diseases known as 'convenient commitment' and 'limited involvement.' For every person who fulfils their dream, you will find a hundred others who only talk about it. You say, 'Let somebody else do the giving for a change.'

If somebody else sows, somebody else will reap the harvest you were meant to reap. Is that okay with you? The Bible says, 'God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others' (2 Corinthians 9:8).

When God's blessing stops flowing through you, it stops flowing to you. Think long term. Treasure in heaven is laid up, only as treasure on earth is laid down. Paul speaks of '...the Son of God, who loved me, and gave Himself for me' (Galatians 2:20 NLT). Every time God asks you for time, money or talent, remember what Christ gave up for you.
