ACPC 90th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

5.30pm Saturday 19th October 2013

at the New Lucky Star Restaurant, 123 Great South Road, Papatoetoe

90!

We are blessed to have past ministers and pastors (Rev David Dang, Rev P N Ng and Mr Graeme Sterne) and past members (Sunday School members from the Cook Street days too) as well as many present members attending this celebration.

The best place to park is in the restaurant car park and there are limited spaces there. It is recommended that you car pool wherever possible.

The cost of the meal is $20 pp: Children 5-11 years $10: under 5 no charge. We need to give the restaurant the final numbers today – please see Soo Land and register if you have not done so. Payment for the meal today would also be appreciated. Thank you.

PRAYERS

- ❖ Praise and thanksgiving to God for His abundant grace to us all and to our church
- ❖ Thanksgiving to God for his blessing of Rev Micah Tang and Pr Mark Maney and prayers for their ministry at ACPC.
- ❖ The Parish Council meeting this Thursday – that wise decisions will be made and for its new leadership structure
- ❖ ACPC congregation – to support our leadership – step out in faith -become selfless, dedicated and active members of the church by sharing our talents and strengths as ACPC embarks on its 10th decade.

FOUR KINDS OF GIVERS (4)

'...Joseph opened the storehouses [barns] and sold grain to the Egyptians...' Genesis 41:56

Barn people

God used Joseph to feed the nations during a time of worldwide famine. When Pharaoh's advisers couldn't interpret his dream, Joseph did. He actually gave Pharaoh a plan that would not only feed Egypt during seven years of famine, but also feed the world and cause Pharaoh to come out of this crisis a richer man.

When you serve God, He can give you information about the future. He can give you not only the wisdom to survive, but thrive when you're in a recession.

But you can't build such a relationship with God overnight! Joseph's journey to the throne of Egypt led through years of delay, detours and discouragement. He experienced betrayal at the hands of his family, temptation and slander at the hands of his employer's wife, false imprisonment, years of waiting and wondering when God would fulfil His promise to make him a leader.

But he never doubted God. And you must not either! If God can take an ex-con like Joseph and make him the prime minister of Egypt, no obstacle and no enemy can keep Him from fulfilling His promise to you.

So, if you're a bag person, 'consider your ways' and start putting God first in your finances.

If you're a bin person, 'be not afraid,' give, and God will give back to you.

If you're a basket person, place what you've got into God's hands and watch Him multiply it.

If you're a barn person with a heart that longs to meet the needs of a hurting world, nothing your enemies do will stop you.
