INAUGURAL ACPC TABLE TENNIS TOURNAMENT!!!!

Saturday, 6th September 2014

Open to all ACPC members, their family and their friends!!!! Young or old!!!! The more the merrier.

Come and enjoy a time of challenge (for the participants), fun and fellowship. We need spectators as well as players. This is a very good opportunity to invite your non-Christian friends to participate in a church activity. You will also be able to play pool downstairs, card and board games (Sunday School rooms) in between cheering on the competitors.

We anticipate that the competition will start in the afternoon and that we share a pizza meal ($5pp) and dessert together in the evening – and of course, the presentation of the prize.

Register on the ACPC website (preferable) by Friday, 29th August. There are a few hard copies of the registration form on the table.

PCANZ ASSEMBLY WEEK 2014

Every two years, ministers and elders of the Presbyterian Church (one per church) meet to make policy decisions on PCANZ matters. Assembly Week 2014 takes place at St Kentigern's College, Auckland, from 3rd to 7th October 2014.

This year, the Assembly programme has been extended to involve as many church people as possible. Church members are welcome and encouraged to attend on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, any of the

- training in mission workshops from 2-3pm
- evening sessions of worship from 7-9pm

These are great occasions for us to rejoice and celebrate that we are part of PCANZ and to take the opportunity to increase our skill in different aspects of mission with training from experts in their field.

For more information, check the PCANZ Assembly Week 2014 website http://www.pcanzassembly.org.nz/ or see Jean Wong. There is a copy of the programme and the workshops on the notice board.

Let's make up a large group to enjoy one of the evening worship sessions together. Write your name on the list on the notice board!!!
