AUCKLAND CHINESE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

105 Vincent Street, Auckland City
10th September 2017

praying for others

- Rev Tang & Rev Vogel as they minister at ACPC – for wisdom & God's guidance in leading our ministries.
- ACPC congregations – that we hear more keenly God's direction for us on a personal and church level, and act upon it.
- For our neighbours in the city – that we may put into action meaningful ways to show Your kindness, love, mercy, grace and hope to our neighbourhood.
- For those who are unwell, particularly for family members of those at ACPC – We pray for continued healing, comfort, and strength, as well as reassurance for their loved ones.

The Life of Godliness

2 Peter 1:1-11

Rev John Probert

A very warm welcome to everyone,
especially visitors,
to the service today!
Please join us for morning tea
afterwards.

Serving @ acpc

- For those who are travelling – We pray for travelling mercies and safety, may they be able to show God's love wherever they may be.

Reaching out each week @ acpc

Tea and Talk - games, tea and English conversation:

Thursdays 10.30am-12pm

Table tennis:

Sundays 3 - 5pm weekly

A good way to develop your table tennis skills in a friendly, stress-free atmosphere.

Invite a friend!

Next week is the third and final of our "welcome home" communions. You will find an invitation to communion in the bulletin this morning. Please give it to a friend whom you know has not been to Church for a while. The communions will be easy language and user-friendly!

Leadership

On 13-15 (Friday to Sunday) October, the Knox Centre for Leadership and Ministry is offering a course on leadership in local churches. It will be a chance to look at ways to develop new mission projects. ACPC will cover your costs. This is a great skill to get new insights and upskill. See Stuart.

Serving on the Roster

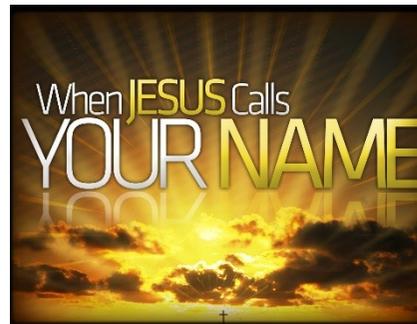

If you haven't put your name down for a duty on roster (e.g. morning tea) please let Kathleen know - there are a couple of vacancies

Why not?

'...Be zealous...and...be so always...' Galatians 4:18 NIV

Admiral Hyman Rickover, who was once head of the United States Nuclear Navy, personally interviewed every officer on board his nuclear submarines. Among them was former President-to-be Jimmy Carter.

This is Carter's account of the interview: 'He looked straight into my eyes. He never smiled. I was saturated with cold sweat. Finally he asked a question and I thought I could redeem myself. "How did you stand in your class at the Naval Academy?" I had done very well so I swelled my chest with pride and answered, "Sir, I stood fifty-ninth out of a class of eight hundred and twenty!" I sat back waiting for congratulations - which never came. Instead, the question: "Did you do your best?" I started to say, "Yes, sir," but I...recalled several times at the Academy when I could have learned more about our allies, our enemies, weapons, strategy, and so forth. I was just human. I finally gulped and said, "No, sir, I didn't always do my best." He looked at me for a long time, then turned his chair around to end the interview. He asked one final question, which I have never been able to forget - or to answer. He said, "Why not?" I sat there for a while, shaken, then slowly left the room.'

So what now? That's a question to ask yourself at the end of each day: 'Did I do my best?' You can be certain it's a question you'll face when you stand at the Judgment Seat of Christ to be evaluated and rewarded. If you can't answer yes, the question then will be, 'Why not?'

Celebrating 125 years!

In December we will be celebrating 125 years of mission to Chinese people in Auckland. We need one or two more people from EM to form a small committee to organise the event. This will not be arduous; it will be fun and will involve only a few meetings. A chance to be creative!
